BROWNVILLE N. T.

"Free to Form and Regulate ALL their Domestic Institutions in their own way, subject only to the Constitution of the United States."

One square (10 times or less) one insertion, One sighth Column three months, and uncing candidates for office (in advance,) - - 5 90

BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 5, 1860.

BUSINESS CARDS U. C. JOHNSON, ATTORNEY AT LAW. SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY AND Real Estate Agent, BROWNVILLE, N. T. REFERNOES. Hon. Wm Jessup, Montrose, Pa. John U. Miller, Chiengo, Ill. Wm. K. McAllister, " " " Charles F. Fowler, " " R. W. Furnas, Brownville, N. T. O. F Lake, May 7, 1857.

E. MATHIEU Cabinet & Wagon-Maker Main Street, bet. Sixth and Seventh, BROWSVILLE, N. T. Allkinds of cabinet work neatly executed. Paparring of wagons' plows, etc., promptly done.

J. B. WESTON, Brownville, Nebraska. 17 Office on Main Street, one door above the Post

arownyille, Dreember 1, 1859. C. W. WHEELER, Architect and Builder. Brownville, N. T. MRS. MARY HEWETT

MILLINER AND DRESS MAKER. Main Street, one door above Carsons Bank, BROWNVILLE N. T. Bonnets and Trimmings always on hand. JAMES W. GIBSON,

Second Street, between Main and Nebraska, BROWNVILLE, N. T. T. M. TALBOTT, DENTAL SURGEON, Having located himself in Brownville, N. T., teners his professional services to the community.

Having permanently located in BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA,

For the practice of Medicine and Surgery, teners his professional services to the afflicted. Office on Main Street. A. S. HOLLADAY, M. D.

Bespectfully informs his friends in Brownville and diste vicinity that he has resumed the practice of Medicine, Surgery, & Obstetrics, ranted. and hopes, by strict attention to his profession, to receive that generous patronage heretofore extended to him. In is clases where it is possible or expedient, a prescription siness will be done. Office at City Brug Store.

Phoenix Insurance Company, Hartford, Connecticut.

FIRE INSURANCE EXCLUSIVEL' Charter Perpetual. Cash Assetts, 8547,712 37

H KELLOGG, Secretary M. MAGILL General Agent.

Union. Lesses promptly paid. Applications recelv-and policies issued and renewed. O. B. HEWEIT Agent, At Brownville, N. T. Brownville, Nov. 17 1859 .- 1y

NEWSPAPERS,

Periodicals, Of every description, for sale at SCHIITZ & DEUSER'S

South-east corner Main and Second, RROWNVILDE, N. T. Sept. 228, 1859.

JOHN W. MIDDLETON,

de usually obtained in Saddle and Harness shops. JOHN W. MIDDLETON. Brownville May 12.

BOOT & SH STORE,

First Street opposite Recorder's Office, BROWNVILLE, N. T.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform the citizens Brownville, and vicinity, that he bas located here for or purpose of manufacturing Boots and Shoes to order brownville, July 7, 1859.

JESSE NOEL

D. L. M'GARY. O. B. REWETT, E. W. THOMAS McGary, Hewett & Thomas, ATTORNEYS AT LAW AND SOLICITORS IN CHANCERY. Brownville, Nebraska.

Will practice in the Courts of Nebrasks, and Morti REFERENCES.

Mesers, Crow, McCreary & Co., St. Louis, Mo. Hon. James M. Hughs, Hon John R. Shepty, - . St. Joseph, Mo. Hon. James Craig, Hon. Slius Woodson, Hon. Samuel W. Black, Nebraska City, N. T. S. F. Nucketla, Esq., beever Sweet & Co. Brownville R. W. Furnas Brownville, N. T. Oct. 28, 1856.

BEDFORD DEALERS IN WARRANTS, AND

EASTERN EXCHANGE Brownville, N. T. LAND WARRANTS LOANED ON TIME From One Month to Ten Years,

Land Warrants Loaned to Pre-emptors; Taxes Paid; Collections made; Real Estate Boucht and Sold; Lands Located; and safe Investments made for Eastern Cap-All Land Warrants sold by us are guaranted perfect 5.000

Acres of Choice Lands, For Sale in Nemaha and Richardson Counties, Nebraska. These lands were selected and located immediately ter the Land Sales, and are amongst the most valua We will sell them at low prices, and on long time to

WILCOX & BEDFORD,

Brownville, N. T., Dec. 8, 1859. JOSEPH L. ROY, BARBER

HAIR DRESSER. Main Street, BROWNVILLE, N. T.

Clocks, Watches & Jewelry.

J. SCHITTZ

Would angounce to the citizens of Brownville and vicinity that he has located himself in Brownville, and intends keeping a full assort. ment of everything in his line of business, which will be sold low for cash. He will also do all kinds of repairing of clocks, watches and jewelry. All work war-

CITY LIVERY STABLE.

WM. ROSSELL, BROWNVILLE, N. T. es to the public that he is prepared to accom redate those wishing with Carriages and Buggler; together with good safe horses, for comfort and case in travelling. He will also board horses by the day, week or June 10, '58. SOUT

MAIN STREET, (Over Seigle & Greenbaum's Clothing Store,)

Brownville, N T. The proprietor would respectfully inform the pubbut he has opened up and established for the re-- ot of the inner man, at the above mentioned slace, water all can be accommodated with the hest of Wines and Liquors, and enjoy the soothing in-fluence of the best quality of Segars. A first class BILLIARD TABLE, Phelan's Patent Combination Cushious, with all the noderm improvements, is also on the premises for the enjoyment of all who delight in this gentleman-EVAN WORTHING. September 22d, 1859.

CHARTER OAK Insurance Company

Hartford, Conn. Incorporated by the State of Connecticut.

Capital Stock $200,000. With large and increasing surplus receipts, securely invested under the sanction and approval of the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS: JAMES C. WALKLEY, President, JOHN L. BUNCE, Vice President. ELIAS GILL, Secretary. E. D. DICKERMAN, General Agent.

DIRECTORS: Alfred Gill, Daniel Phillips, John L. Bunee, J. A. Butler, E. D. Diekerman Nelson Hellister, N. Wheaton, Sam. Coit. James C. Walkley.

S. B. Beresford, M. D. Consulting Physician.
A. S. Holladay, M. D. Medical Examiner. Applications received by R. W. FURNAS. Ag't, Brownville, N. T.

CITY TRUNK STORE.

FASSETT & CROSSMAN, Manufacturers of Traveling & Packing VALISES, CARPET BAGS, &C. South West corner of Pine and 3d st's,

Saint Louis, Mo. We are now prepared to fill all orders n our line with promplaces and on the he most reasonable terms. Our stock is large and complete and all of our own manufacturing. Those in want of articles in our line, (wholesale or retail) will do well to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. A share of public patron-

JAMES HOGAN, Book-Binder,

BLANK BOOK MANUFACTURER. Southeast cr. 2nd and Locust St's. ST. LOUIS, MO.

All kinds of Blank Books, made of the best paper, ruled to any pattern, and sewed in the new improved patent LIERARIES PERIODICALS, MUSIC.&c, The old business of Noel, Lake & Emmerson will be | Having been awarded the Premium at the last Me- their planting can be seen on the farms of S. W Ker tentied by Henry Lake. All future business conducted change's Pair, he feels concluded in incuring satisfaction nedy, G. Crow, J. Skeen and others in this county JESSE NOEL. to all who may give him a call. Fulf 22d, 1868.

IRON.

D. A. CONSTABLE. IMPORTER AND DEALER IN IRON, STEEL, NAILS CASTINGS, SPRINGS, AXLES, FILES BELLOWS, BLACKSMITH'S TOOLS Third Street, between Felix and Edmond, Which he sells at St. Louis prices for cash. N. B. Agent for the celebrated MOLINE PLOWS. Highest Price Paid for Scrap Iron, December 1, 1859.-ly.

KINNEY & HOLLY, ATTORNEYS AT LAW NEBRASKA CITY, N T. Will-practice in the Courts of this Territory. Collecon and criminal business attended to throughout Neraska, Western lows and Missouri. Wall attend the

E. S. DUNDY, ATTORNEY AT LAW, WILL practice in the several Courts of the 2d Judicial district, and attend to all matters connected with the will assist me in the presecution of important Suits. GEORGE EDWARDS, ARCHITECT. OFFICE-Main St. East of Kinney & Holly's office, Nebraska City, N. T.

Persons who contemplate building can be furnished with Designs, Plans, Specifications, &c., for buildings of any class or variety of style, and the erection of the rupted byto business from a distance

FRANKLIN TYPE & STEREOTYPE FOUNDRY No. 168 Vine St., bet. Fourthand Fifth. Cincinnati, 0.

C. F. O'DRISCOLL & CO Manufacturers and dealers in News, Book and Job Type, Printing Presses, Cases, Gallies, &c., &c. Printing Material of Every Description STEREOTYPING of allkind-Books Music. Patent Medicine Directions, Jobs, Wood Engrevings, Brand and Pattern Letters, various styles, SAINT JOSEPH ST. JOSEPH, MO.

WILLIAM CAMERON, A. M., Principal. Completely organized as a first class Female Boarding and Day School. Number limited to 125, including 25 orders. Scholastic year commencing first Monday in September. For Catalogues, with full particulars, ad-A. W. ELLIOTT, Nursery

SEED DEPOT. Cor. Broadway and Wash Street. ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI. Having purchased the entire nursery stock of John he largest and best selected stock of Fruit Shade, and rnamental taess, shrobs and plants ever offered for tale in the West. We are determined to offer such inducements to tree planters and the trade as will ensure the most entire satisfaction. Descriptive catalogues will e furnished, and any information given, by addressing A. W. ELLIOTT, November 25, '59-Iv.

Saint Louis, Mo.

Manufactory. COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA. WILLIAM F. KITER,

Would respectfully inform the citizens in Western Iowa and Nebraska that he has opened a first class Cindery, and the only one over established in this section of country. I am now prepared to do all kinds of work pertaining to the business. Harper's, Graham's, Godey's, Peterson's, Arthur's Ballou's, Frank Leslie's, Knickbocker, Waverly, Hunt's, and Putnam's Magazines. New York Ledger, Baltou's Pictorial, Harper's Weekly, Scien-tific American, Yankee Notions, Musical Review, Leslie's Illustrated, Ladies Repository, Ledies Wreath, Atlantic Monthly, Music, Law, Books, and Newspapers, or books of any kind, old or new, bound or r bound in the most approved styles, on short notice and low prices. Old family Bibles rebound so as to look and wear equal to new. August 24, 1859. DROWN & CLINTON, PRODUCE DEALERS, Forwarding & Commission MERCHANTS, No. 78, North Levee, St. Louis, Mo. Orders for Groceries and Manufactured Articles accurately filled at lowest possible rates. Consignment for sale and re-shipment respectully solicited. Shipments of all kinds will be faithfully attended to.

Referrences: Mesars. G II Rea & Co
Bartlett. McComb & Co Gilbert, Miles & Stannard Hon. W H Buffington, Auditor State of Missouri J Q Harmon, Esq, Cairo City, III. Messrs Molony, Bro's & Co' New Orleans, Louisiana J D Jackson, Esq., Messrs Hinkle, Guild & Co, Cincinnati, 0.

F Hammar & Co

Brandell & Crawford

Woodruff & Huntington, Mobile, Ala. H. Billings, Esq., May I2, IS58 45-3m Beardstown, Iil. A. D. KIRK, Louisville, Ky.

Land Ageat and Notary Public. Rulo, Richardson Co., N. T. Willpractice in the Courts of ssisted Nebraska, a AHarding and Bennett Nebraska City. isham reavis,

AT LAW, AND BEAL ESTATE AGENT, Falls City, Richardson County, Nebraska Willicve prompt attenti n to all professional busi ness intrusted to his care in Richardson and adjoining

HEDGE FENCING

u planting and cultivation Osage Orange Hedges, here-D. C. & T. N. ANDERS.

Miscellaneous.

Congress in 1890. We find the following in the Columbus Enquirer, a paper which has always given honest credits, or else we should suspect it was a sly "Punch," from some sarcastic observer across the Atlantic:

July 5, 1890 .- Mr. D. Farcer, Dem., of Kentucky, brought forward a motion for the suppression of oral discussion in the Legislature. The honorable member proposed, as a substitute, that all questions at issue should be settled by single combat, bowie-knife or pistol.-Honorable members were, up to the present period, in the habit of sticking at nothing, and he (Mr. Farcer) thought that this proposal would certainly obviate something to stick at.

Mr. Barker, (Dem.) of Virginia, seconded the motion, and also he would be happy to second any of the combatants in want of his assistance. He believed Profession. WM. McLENNAN, Esq., of Nebraska City, his qualifications in this respect were well known to the honorable House; and if any member was ignorant of them, he would take the liberty of recapitulating. The honorable member was here proceeding to give the details of several sanguinary difficulties, when he was inter-

Mr. Whittle, (Whig) of Tenn. What dies the honorable member mean when thrusting the details of his duels on the House? Good wine needs no bush, and a successful duelist needs no praise.-There was no danger of the honorable member's deeds not being trumpeted to the world, because everybody knows that "murder will out."

Mr. Barker-You are a liar and thief! (No sensation whatever.) Mr. Whittle-The honorable rasca pposite has called me a liar and a thief. believe that the House will support me when I term him a murder and assassin. (Less sensation than before.) Mr. Barker-Who robted the man on the steamboat? A-h-h! Mr. Whittle-Who ran away from the

Mr. Barker (shaking his fist)-Silver Mr. Whittle-I did not insure my

Mr. Barker- If the honorable member ain't a coward, he'll have it out with me house for double its value and then set it

Mr. Whittle (jumping on the table) Come on you ruffian. The Speaker-Fair play, gentlemen. Recollect, if you please, that the proceedings will be reported.

The honorable members then had a set to, in which both displayed considerable science, and a great deal of animosity. Bets ran high as to who would win, and we understand that the Speaker speculated heavily. After five rounds, however, Whittle gave in, and Barker was carried home by his triumphant friends. We be- yours what I do?" lieve that a meeting between the gentlemen is arranged to come off to-morrow. This incident agreeably relieved the monotony of the week's debates, that were growing exceedingly tedious.

Woman's Love-A Beautiful Inci-

Six years ago, says a Milwaukie paper young man just entering on life, under the influence of rum, committed a crime victed, and sent to Waupun, where he as that?" her heart ever pointing to the future .- said, "Your blessing." sed the hours. Seconds were minutes, mad, but comprehending and forgiving all posing it was Willie who had run there minutes were hours, hours days, days in a moment, he only said: to see him as he passed, he stopped again weeks, weeks months, months years, and "You young rascal! If you are this to take another admiring look at him. years were like ages. Every tolling of bad now, what will you be when you have the prison-bell struck deep upon his heart, my years? Come up stairs and see your ed the old man. and every sunset took another thread mother." from the long skein. Nor were the hours Both couples left yesterday on the same gel, sat by her day by day, and reposed Cin. Enquirer. on her pillow by night. Some there were who laughed at her holy love. who sneered so meanly at her lover, a prisoner miles away. But little it mattered to her: ing away from morn till night, with but never to tell a lie, and said : lost, and, woman that she was, nerved judgment." herself to hear their jibes and jeers.

ly cell, words of love, of kindness, and robbers. truly his better angel to watch over his and he answered: lightened the hours as they slowly went garments. counties; also to the drawing of deeds, pre-emption pa-pers &c., r c. May 13. '58 n46-6m on which his soul must feed and trembling- he had. The boy replied: ly shrink to the darkest corner of his liv- "I have told two of your people alrea- "I never said so. sir," said Willie, "I Th eundersigned having had considerable experi nce ing temple. Then a letter from her dy that I had forty dinars sewed up in ain't been at t'other door." would dash aside the dark curtains and my clothes." sed the year. Friends died and he wept at last the little spot of sunshine crept in promised never to tell a lie."

where stood she who, years before, had with the scene. vines, joined in marriage. We were wit- on it. nesses to the ceremony, and shall never forget it. Never forget the eye moistened with happiness, nor the throbbing of the heart that had so long waited and trusted. Saved, saved! May the future be all the brighter for the cloud that has hung so long over it, and true friends ever ready to lend a helping hand. We such a state of things by giving them believe in woman's love-in woman's devotion the more, after knowing the facts above stated. God bless the true heart wherever found.

Two Elopements in one Family the Same Night!

arrived at the Burnet House, Tuesday If the amount saved be large, then the blades or bowstrings. Of course the tales night and were married almost immedi- sum total will be increased in propor. is endless-true and false-in reference ately after, the young man being greatly tion. Only think of it, that $500 saved to his sayings and doings. Time and space alarmed lest his father, who he once annually, and invested in ten per cent, only admit of my giving you one, which thought he saw at a station on the rail- stock, will amount in forty years to $243, actually happened, and I shall then leave way between this city and Cynthiana, 500, $1,000,000 invested in the same him in peace to retire to Kalongs, for was in close pursuit, and might arrive in way for ten years will amount to $2. which place he leaves us in a few days, The sequel to the story, which was de- in thirty years to $17,384,628, in forty wives and retainers, already there, with veloped in a few hours later, is as fol-

While the young couple were receiving | boundless fortunes. the congratulations of those who had witnessed the ceremony at the Burnet, a similar tragedy, or comedy-whichever the reader pleases-was being enacted at the Spencer House. The young man had not been mistaken when he thought he saw Revere House without paying his bill? and on the same train. They escaped re- worth publishing. cognition by taking, as it happened, dif-

who little suspected that his hopeful off- and which is Walter. When one deserv- of soaping the clergyman's tin horn at ried, he came down unattended, when the it and on account of their exact like- went to call the congregation together be following conversation took place.

you doing here ?" evening that you were about to elope with ter Walter seemed to nee something of uttered a profane word, but I'll be d could do such a thing." ly,) but is it any particular business of fell asleep. He continued in a stupor for present.

teach me propriety? Don't you suppose her that she had given him two doses that repent which was being made by the I know what's right and wrong?" Y. G .- "Why certainly you do, or you incident. were to do as you have done?"

Y. G .- "Woudn't you be angry?"

served out his time behind the prison The young blood here began a series miring the little fellow's intelligent coun- "Why, what crime have you commitbars. Before his trial a fair girl had of gymnastic exercises, which made the tenance and healthy took, stopped and ted?" said the preacher-"have you stopromised to link fortunes with him, and old gentleman think his son had sudden- asked him his name. cruel was the blow to her. But she lov- ly been deprived of his wits. A moment "My name is Willie, sir," replied the ed him. All through his six years did after, however, the young man darted out little one. she wait for his release. With a true of the room, and before the father could "Ah, a pretty name, and a very pretty woman's heart, she believed him innocent, recover his self posession, he returned boy," said the old gent., patting him on innocent, at least, before God; and like with his blushing bride; when the two the head. "Here's a dime for you." the magnet, she held on her steady way. bent down before him, and half audibly Passing on to the next door, he ob-less weary to her. Hope, that blessed an- train for their "Old Kentucky Home."- the other door, that your name is Wil-

A Story for Boys.

It is related of a Parisian mother, that you a dime.' others might laugh-she wept: others on her giving her son forty pieces of silmight point to a man in prison garb, toil- ver as his portion, she made him swear you didn't give me a dime," said Wal-

The youth went away, and the par- and then walked slowly back to Willie's "Sir." retorted his better hair, "how Blessed words came to him in his lone- ty he traveled with were assaulted by door. The old gent looked at him stead- can you judge what any man of the least stronger grew the heart of him who had One fellow asked the boy what he had, unbroken fortune. Each word from her "Forty dinars are sewed up in my Walter."

by, and larger grew the day on which The robber laughed thinking the boy name's Will e," said the confused little who last week stole a jackass, which same liberty was to come. Men visited him jested. Another asked the same question fellow and with careless word or speaking eye, and received the same answer. At last threw into his cell a maddening thought the chief called him, and asked him what er door, that your name was Walter, and given to squinting, and likewise his shoes.

his door led him forth into the bright rays mindful of thy duty to thy mother at thy yourself, sir. When you grow up to be of liberty. He was conducted to the of- years, and am I insensible at my age of a man-" fice of the prison by McGaw, and a cit- the duty I owe to God? Give me thy Just here Walter, who had heard the izen's dress, in place of a prison suit hand that I may swear repentance on it." loud talking, walked round to Willie's promised before God to be his. What a "You have been our leader in guilt," dered. He soon comprehended the matthey said to the chief, "be the same in ter, and when he did, he took the dime On the evening train the two arrived the path of virtue," and taking the boy's back from Willie, and gave them a half in this city, and were, by one of our di- hand, they took the oath of repentance a dollar each.

What a Little Saving will do.

a young man, on his twentieth birth-day, late letter from St. Petersburg: will invest $100 in any stock paying ten "I will merely say that he lives on the In our last issue we noticed the fact that only to regulate his expenses so as to nothing more or less than the late execua young couple from Fayette County Ky., save one hundred dollars from his income. tioners of his savage will, whether with time to tear his betrothed from his arms. 588,000, in twenty years to $6,746,000, there to enjoy life in company with his

Walter and Willie.

The Mobile Register tells the follow-his father on the road, for the old ras- little incident, which occurred in the the warrior chief turned pale, as well he cal, who, it seems, was in the same hu- wholesale dry-goods establishment situa- might, considering the thousands of Russi mor with his son, had actually eloped ted on the north-west corner of St. Fran- sians he had put to death. He asked for with a young widow in his neighborhood, cis and Water streets, a day or two since. time for prayer and absolution, but he was and came to this city on the same errand which was worth seeing, if it was not given to understand, that the friends of ferent cars, and stopping at different ho- two little boys, aged about eight years- chieftainship, and he has smoked his pipe. When the young man learned how voice and action, would rival the celebra- his champaigne in peace. matters stood, accompanied by his bride, ted twins of San Francisco. They are he repaired to the Spencer House, and so much alike that even the mother is at sending his card up to the old gentleman, times puzzled to know which is Willie spring was in the city, much less mar- es a spanking, the other frequently gets the camp meeting-so that when he ness to each other, she recently came blew the soft soap over his brother cler-Old Gentleman-"Well sir; what are near loosing one of them. She had oc- gymen, and how he exclaimed: the city to see if it could be possible you ment to get the medicine, but in that time horn!" the boys had got mixed, and by some Our readers, we say, have all heard of some ten or fourteen hours, much to the | Some two days after a tall, swarthy, Y. G .- "O, no; but the example, the" astonishment and alarm of the mother, villainous looking desperado strolled on O. G .- "Zounds! sir, do you come to no effect. It was not until Willie told listening to the eloquent exhortation to

she discovered the mistake. But to the preacher. After a while he became inought to; but what would you say if I The mother having some business to position on the anxious seat, and with his transact in the store, took the two boys face between his hands commenced O. G .- "Say? I would say you had with her. They were dressed exactly groaning in "the very bitterness" of his more spirit than I ever gave you credit alike, and during the stay of their mo- sorrow. The clergyman walked down ther they each took a stand in separate and endeavored to console him. No come doors fronting on Water-street, to see solation-he was too great a sinner, he O. G .- "Of course not, you dog; but what was to be seen. While standing said. Oh, no-there was pardon for the against society, was tried in the city, con- weat makes you ask such a silly question there an old gentleman, who was walk- vilest. No, he was too wicked-there ing slowly by, saw one of them, and, ad- was no mercy for him.

served Walter standing in the same pos-Long were the years to him. Slow pas- It was now the old man's turn to play ture that Willie had occupied, and sup- ten sinner. "Do you live in Mobile, Willie?" ask-

> "My name is not Willie," said Walter. "Why, didn't you just now tell me, at

"No Sir, my name is Walter;" "Oh, I thought you said Willie, when a dandy standing by said: "Sir, you ought you stood in the other door, and I gave to have a monkey."

one star to guide him on. She saw but "Go, my son, I consign thee to God, The old gentleman looked at him for "I do not think, madam, that any man the honest soul that might be saved, or we shall not meet again till the day of a moment, as though the good opinion he of the least sense would approve your

> "Ah! Walter," said he, "you should not tell stories. You must be a good boy, that I didn't give you a dime?"

"Because," replied the boy, "I would say, I gave you a dime, there you say I cent.

The sin was long since atoned for, and not be false to my mother, to whom I didn't. Here you say you havn't been at the other door, there you say you haven't his cell, and entering by the key-hole of "Child," said the robber, "art thou so been at this. You should be ashamed of given him, and led into an inner room, He did so, and his followers were struck side, and there they stood in front of the old gentleman who was perfectly better-

> Shamyl at St. Petersburgh. This noted captive Chieftan, who for Figures sometimes produce almost in- so long a period, gave trouble to the Ruscredible results. Thus, for instance, if sians in Circassia, is thus ap ken of in a per cent. annually, and thereafter will fat of the land, and drives about armed invest the same amount and the accumu- to the teeth-for he is allowed to retain lation of interest, he will be worth when his arms-daily up and down the Newlise he is thirty years old, $1,753. when for- ky and along the quays. escorted by one ty years old, $6,300, when fifty years old, or more Russian officers, who have him as $18.150, when sixty years old, $48.700. it were in charge, and accompanied by How simple, then, is the plan by which his son-a most ugly specimen of Ciryouth of the present day can pass his cassia-and two remarkable furcapped old age in comfort and luxury! He has individuals, called "friends," but who are years to $43,250,808. No wonder, then a pension of 12,000 roubles per annum, that the Rothchilds have amassed such house and comforts found. However, on arriving at St. Petersburg, which I am told surpasses, in his estimation, all the dreams of Paradise, he was courteously received by the Governor, who, after having bidden him welcome, said, turning to one of his aides, "I will now hand you We happened to witness an amusing over to the care of my friend." On which the Governor were not precisely in the A widow lady of our acquaintance has same catagory as the "friends" of his twins-who for oneness of size, features, admired the Russian ladies, and qualled

Our readers have all heard the story

casion to administer a small dose of par- "Brethren, I have served the Lord for Young Gentleman-"I learned last egoric to Willie, and a few moments af- thirty years, and in that time have never widow ----, and have followed you to the same sort. She turned but a mo- if I can't whip the man that soaped that

O. G .- "That's very considerate in means Willie swallowed another dose, this, but perhaps never heard the sequel you, young man, (spoken somewhat tart- and shortly afterwards went to bed and as given to us yesterday by a gentleman who saw that upon Walter the drug had the grounds and leaned against a tree, terested, finally affected, and then took a len?"

"Oh! worse than that!" "What !- have you by violence robbed femule innocence of its virtue?" "Worse than-Oh! worse than that!"

"Murder, is it ?" gasped the horrified

"Worse than that!" groaned the smit-The excited preacher commenced "peeling off" his outer garments.

"Here. Brother Cole!" shouted he

"hold my coat-I've found the fellow that soaped that horn!" A witty auctioneer was trying to sell an old hand-organ. To that end he was grinding out the music, and the crowd in sport, began to throw out pennies, when

"My good fellow," said the auctioneer, "I ain't been in the other door, and "so I had; step right up here."

The dandy vanished. had formed of him was fast changing, conduct," said an indignant husband.

An Irish advertisement says: A reward of five dollars is offered for "I ain't told no stories, sir, and my the apprehension of Patrick O'Flaherty had on a pair of corduroy breeches, with let down at the heel.

You had better ask for manners than "Why, you precious little scamp," said money, said a finely-dressed gentleman by inform the patticinat they are now prepared to contract either planting, setting them out, or growing and beckoned him a spot of sunshine outside. The chief ordered the clothes to be the old man, somewhat excited," what do to a beggar who had asked for alms. I make the complete. Ordered the present reach. So pass ripped onen and the money was found. and beyond the present reach. So pas- ripped open, and the money was found. you mean? At this door you are Willie, asked you for what I thought you had "And how came you to tell this?" at the other you are Walter. Here, you the most of, was the reply of the mendi-

All jobs warranted. DR. D. GWIN.

BY STATE AUTHORITY. INCREASE OF CASH CAPITAL

Cash Capital, 400,000 00 Dollars.

S.H. LOOMIS, President. Branch Office. 31 & 33 3.1 St. Cincinnati. Agents in the principal Cities and towns in the MANUFACTORY!

BROWNVILLE, N. T. REREBY informs the public that he has located himself in this City, and is prepared o serve those in want of anything in his line. has selected his stock with care and will manufacture No. I srticle of everything offered. He deems it unvessary to enumerate; but will keep on hand evey arti-

NEW

all persons in want of a superior article will do well to Repairing promptly and neatly done. E. GREEN.

Having rented the interest of Lake and Emmerson in te Brownville Steam Saw and Grist Mill, announces to thepublic that he is prepared to accommodate the citizens of Brownville and Nemaba County with a su-Perior quality of lumber of all kinds. Also with the first Mill, to serve all in that line. The market price at all times paid for Logs and Corn. bound in any style, and at the shortest notice. Stownville, April 7th, 1889,